

International Women's Day

A moment to come together in hope and action

Tuesday, March 8, 2022

Noon – HSU Pond

Celebrate with lemonades

7pm – Moody Center 108

Student Panel about Women's Issues and Experiences

Facilitated by Tiffany Fink, Professor of History

Play games, work some female empowerment puzzles, and enjoy a time of fellowship to celebrate women at HSU and around the globe.

The Month of March

#HSUCelebratesWomen is collecting feminine hygiene products to benefit New Beginnings, Noah Project, International Refugee Committee-Abilene, Love & Care Ministries, and the PA Kenya Mission Trip. Please bring items to the March 8 events or to the offices of Social Work, the Richardson Library, Office of Academic Advising, the PA Program, and/or Department of History, Philosophy & Political Science.

Ten Attributes of International Women's Day

Justice Dignity Hope Equality Collaboration Tenacity

Appreciation Respect Empathy Forgiveness

Pledge to #BreakTheBias